NEWS

FROM THE T.S.A.

On Tuesday, May 3rd the Cadbury League Clubs held a meeting to discuss all matters relevant to the Cadbury League. Whilst the final summary of the meeting has yet to be submitted to the Association the draft copy has set out some very constructive proposals aimed at improving the League and all matters associated with its development.

No doubt that when the final proposals are discussed and considered the benefactors will be the Cadbury League Clubs and those associated with the overall operation of the League.

The clubs are to be congratulated on this move which, through proper representation, can only lead to improvements in the Cadbury League and relationships with the administration.

Next Tuesday the State Under 18 Squad under Coach Glyn Jenkins and Manager Ross Wesson leave for Canberra and the 1983 National Youth Championships - congratulations to the following players on their selection and, of course, best wishes for a successful competition-

Matthew Richman, Brett Murtagh & John White from Clarence.

Elvio Brianese & Carlo Ambrosino of Juventus Pioneer.

Nick Marino & Peter Cavaretta from Hobart City.

Tony Bacic, Ibro Cahut & Paul Turjanic of Croatia Glenorchy.

Darren Archer from Phoenix.

Darren Chilcott & Andrew Howe of Ulverstone.

Kurt Reynolds & Richard Soule from Launceston Juventus

David Meldrum of Devonport.

The squad are drawn with N.S.W., Queensland & W.A. playing their first match on Wednesday against N.S.W.

REFEREES/LINESMEN

A topic that very often causes raised eyebrows - they are criticised, abused and often have their ancestory told to them - well whether this be true or not the real truth is that more and more Referees are required to cover the increasing number of games

CLUB NEWS

SOUTH HOBART - On Saturday, May 21st the Club celebrates its 73rd birthday with a party at the Wheatsheaf Hotel commencing at 5.30pm.
A feature of the function will be a giant birthday cake prepared by Les Richardson along with a display of the club's collection of photographs.
Both past and present members are invited to attend and should anyone have difficulty with transport they should contact any of the following-
Denis Jacoora (232731), Tony Chaffey (724416), Bert Hudson (232046 or Brian Roberts (233081/232511).

JUVENTUS - The togetherness of the Juventus club was highlighted last Sunday - Mother's Day.
The Junior teams put on a family night at the Australian-Italian club for their Mums. More than two hundred proud mothers, dads and players made it a really good function. Club funds also were boosted.....

Coach Peter Brine and President John Genovesi are taking particular interest this season in the Juniors and going out of their way to have a look at the boys in action. There's a growing close liaison between the club's general committee and the various junior teams, particularly since Jackie Bromfield and John Oliver were appointed as representatives on the Committee.

The enthusiasm and dedication of Juventus Pioneer players are being tested this weekend.

Yesterday the team travelled to Georgetown for their second round in the Statewide Cup and today they meet White Eagles in the first match at South Hobart.
It wasn't easy yesterday for coach Peter Brine, goalie Steve Craven and midfield genius John Charlton. They finished work at Wrest Point Casino at 4.00am and were on the road to Georgetown a few hours later. Steve & John had to re-organize their work roster or they would have had to report for work last night for another shift.
None of the trio would hear of stepping down for one match.

With Brine, the whole squad, senior and reserves, is determined to do what the seniors failed to do last year - cap off a good season with the Pie in the sky

WHITE EAGLES - Next Saturday night is F.A. CUP FINAL NIGHT and White Eagles wish to advise that anyone wishing to watch the final on a large video screen then they are invited to 8 Haigh Avenue, Lenah Valley - admission is $5.00 per person and includes food and refreshments.

REFEREES VIEWPOINT

Holding an opponent or pushing an opponent with his hand or any part of his arm, law 12(g) and (h), becomes a serious offence if, for example, a player firmly held the hair of an opponent as he was about to be beaten, possibly dragging his opponent to the ground in doing so. Holding an opponent by the throat is a serious offence. Also if a player pushes an opponent so that the opponent collides with say a goal post, this offence can be considered as of a serious nature, and if, in the opinion of the Referee, it warranted dissmissal, then the player is sent off under the category of serious foul play.
These four offences listed under law 12 (b),(c), (d), and (e) all become serious foul play if, in the opinion of the Referee, they can be considered serious enough to be classed also as kicking or striking, in which case the trip has (possibly) seriously injured the opponent.

For example a player can trip an opponent, Law 12 (b) by delivering a violent kick. The opponent has been brought down, tripped up, but the tripping is of such a serious nature that the referee can send the player off.
Another example of a serious trip on an opponent would be a trip delivered at knee or thigh height especially if the ground conditions were hard and the opponent was sent flying through the air. Also a player who sends an opponent crashing into a goalpost because of a trip or sends an opponent tumbling off the field of play into spectators.

These are all examples of what a referee can consider serious foul play

NOTE:- Queries on the Laws of the game are invited and will be answered through SOCCER '83 NEWS but please do not relate specific match incidents.

LEAFLETS ON THE LAWS ARE NOW AVAILABLE FROM THE T.S.A. OFFICE - YES - FREE OF CHARGE
